Hudson Meridian Construction Group Appoints Richard Cote as Executive Vice President

New York, N.Y. – September 5, 2017 - Hudson Meridian Construction Group (www.hudsonmeridian.com) is pleased to announce that Richard Cote has rejoined the firm and has been appointed Executive Vice President. He will be heading the public sector division including waterfront and other infrastructure projects in New York City.

Richard has over 30 years of experience in project management, facility operations and construction including extensive expertise in project development, planning and execution. He is a seasoned construction/facilities manager with hundreds of millions in construction that he successfully completed over his career. Richard is a retired military officer where he served in the United States Army in various capabilities since 1982 and currently holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the Retired Reserve.

“It’s great to be back at Hudson Meridian. I will surely miss the exciting and strategic work I did for the City during my tenure at NYCEDC but I am excited to get Hudson Meridian more involved in public sector, infrastructure, resiliency and waterfront projects. I look forward to focusing on this and working with a diverse and varied client base to bringing my unique, effective and successful style of project management to the industry,” said Mr. Cote.

Prior to him rejoining Hudson Meridian, Richard spent 5 years working for New York City Economic Development Corporation where he was the Executive Vice President (EVP) for Asset Management. As the EVP for the Asset Management Division, he supervised over 70 personnel in the division including operations managers, project managers, property managers, and close to a dozen construction management firms. Some of the projects Rich was responsible for were industrial space renovations, seawall, bulkhead and pier work, post Sandy restoration and resiliency work, and the construction and launch of the new NYC Ferry / Citywide ferry system.

“It is great to have Richard back leading our public sector division. Under his leadership, we will again take a significant role in these sectors. His unique expertise and experience in government financed construction will be a valued asset to Hudson Meridian and our clients,” said William Cote, founder and Chief Executive Officer at Hudson Meridian.
