JACKIE VINCESLAO and CORRYN DARLING OF HUDSON MERIDIAN HONORED AT WBC'S 15th ANNUAL CHAMPION AWARDS DINNER

Vinceslao and Darling presented with award at WBC's 15th Annual Champion Awards Dinner

New York, NY, June 25, 2019 – On May 7, 2019, Women Builders Council (WBC) honored Executive Assistant, Jackie Vincaslao as a 2019 Outstanding Woman and Project Manager, Corryn Darling as a 2019 Next Generation of Women Builders at its 15th Annual Champion Awards Dinner. As the leading association for women in the building trades, Women Builder Council's annual event featured over 600 guests and recognized 165 Outstanding and Next Generation Women Builders from top companies for the important roles they play in building New York's evolving skyline.

WBC's "Outstanding Women" award is presented to individuals who have made great strides in their professional career, while supporting the organization's mission of increasing diversity and the role of women in the building industry. The "Next Generation of Women Builders" is an honor reserved for those 35 and under who demonstrate the highest caliber of leadership, interest in the industry and career promise.

The Outstanding Women and Next Generation of Women Builders are game-changing women who are helping to lead our industry forward. Those honored are comprised of leading women at large corporations and small companies alike.

This year's honorees represented the game-changing women in construction, who have dedicated themselves to excellence and paved the way for the next generation of women who are following in their footsteps. The awards were presented by Chris Asaro, President of Holt Construction Corporation, Pat A. Di Filippo, Executive Vice President, Turner Construction Company and William J. Gilbane, Jr. Vice Chairman of Gilbane Building Company.
